PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Submitted by
Alex Chiaro

Greetings Somerset
I would like to wish all in Somerset an enjoyable and safe Labor Day.

There has been increased usage of our clubhouse and pool area. The homeowner's association encourages participation and seeing our facilities enjoyed and respected is what we hope for. We also strongly encourage everyone to be respectful of each other. The club office has reported a few recent incidents of people not being tolerant to our growingly diverse community at the pool. Please be aware we take these types of complaints seriously and encourage tolerance and kindness to all of our residents.

I urge our newer homeowners to read through our Governing Documents. There have been some newer residents that are submitting for permission to make changes to their property that are clearly defined as "not permitted" in our community guidelines. This is a deed restricted community, and those restrictions are clearly spelled out in the Governing Documents and agreed to upon closing of your property. We as a board are committed to our continued service to our beautiful community.

Thank you to all our volunteers who are equally committed to the vision we all hold for our beautiful village.

Happy September everyone

Architectural Review Committee

by Alex Chiaro

September has arrived! We all have seen lots of rain lately and September is historically an active hurricane month. This is a good time to think about trimming back trees. Hurricane season is here, and we have a lot of large trees in Somerset.

Architectural Review forms are available at the clubhouse as well as our website. When painting, please be sure to come to the office and look at the approved color book Exact colors (with color number) that is to be used for the house, trim and/or driveway must be listed on the form along with the current roof color of the home.

Please remember that if any changes are being made to the outside of your home ARC approval is needed prior to beginning your project.

The committee meets each third Thursday of the month if required.

ARC is wishing everyone a safe September.

all, one bill is usually just as welcome as any other, right? Wrong! Living in a planned community biggest advantages comes in the protection to our property values that community association living provides.

Rules and Regulations, Architectural guidelines, C&Rs, By-Laws and state and federal statutes were designed to protect our interests by regulating many of the nuisances that usually chew away at property values.

So, the next time you write out that dues check, remember it's an investment in your community that will be recouped when you decide to sell. Consider it protection on your investment just as your insurance premiums protect your investments in your car, home or life.

Around the Building Room for everyone in Somerset - One of our homeowners requested an article for the Chatterbox: reminding me that coyotes, as well as gators live near our homes. We currently have a homeowner desperately searching for a beautiful tri-color cat. It is necessary to keep small dogs, beautiful cats and every other cherished pet in the house. When walking your pets, be extra vigilant to protect your best friend. They depend on us to keep them safe.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Somerset Village is looking for candidates for their Board of Directors to be nominated at their Annual Homeowners Association meeting on November 15, 2023.

As a member of the community, we encourage you to take this opportunity to participate in the upcoming election process. At this year's election, there are three (3) seats open for election that is currently occupied, for the upcoming 2024- 2027 term.

If you are interested in running for a Seat on the Board of Directors, please email the office to request an application. Only official Somerset applications accepted. The last date for submission is October 2, 2023.

DEPOSIT HAPPINESS

A 92-year-old lady was moved to a nursing home today. Her husband of 70 years recently passed away, making the move necessary. After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, she smiled sweetly when told her room was ready. As she maneuvered her walker to the elevator, I provided a visual description of her tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on her window.

"I love it," she stated.

"Mrs.. Jones, you haven't seen the room ... just wait."

"That doesn't have anything to do with it," she replied. "Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged ... it's how I arrange my mind. I already decided to love it....It 's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice. I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the ones that do. Each day is a gift, and as long as my eyes open I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away ... just for this time in my life. Old age is like a bank account ... you withdraw from what you've put in. So, my advice to you would be to deposit a lot of happiness in the bank account of memories."

Security Committee

Is it hot enough for everyone? September is here. The children are back in school.

The pool area is very busy this summer with the record heat, many homeowners are enjoying it. Our diversity has changed during the past years; we have residents of different ages, cultures and languages. It is important that we show everyone respect, kindness and courtesy, making all feel welcome here in Somerset. Also, as busy as the pool is, please be courteous to the other swimmers in the pool and respect their space in the pool.

Please be aware that being visible is crucial when walking at night, whether you're just enjoying a leisurely stroll or leading your dog. Try to wear a reflector of some sort to make yourself visible to drivers.

Have a wonderful and hopefully cooler September.

Labor Day History

www.history.com

As the Industrial Revolution took hold of the nation, the average American in the late 1800s worked 12-hour days, seven days a week in order to make a basic living. Children were also working, as they provided cheap labor to employers and laws against child labor were not strongly enforced.

With the long hours and terrible working conditions, American unions became more prominent and voiced their demands for a better way of life. On Tuesday September 5, 1882, 10,000 workers marched from city hall to Union Square in New York City, holding the first-ever Labor Day parade. Participants took an unpaid day-off to honor the workers of America, as well as vocalize issues they had with employers. As years passed, more states began to hold these parades, but Congress would not legalize the holiday until 12 years later.

On May 11, 1894, workers of the Pullman Palace Car Company in Chicago struck to protest wage cuts and the firing of union representatives. They sought support from their union led by Eugene V. Debs and on June 26 the American Railroad Union called a boycott of all Pullman railway cars. Within days, 50,000 rail workers complied and railroad traffic out of Chicago came to a halt. On July 4, President Grover Cleveland dispatched troops to Chicago. Much rioting and bloodshed ensued, but the government's actions broke the strike and the boycott soon collapsed. Debs and three other union officials were jailed for disobeying the injunction. The strike brought worker's rights to the public eye and Congress declared, in 1894, that the first Monday in September would be the holiday for workers, known as Labor Day.

The founder of Labor Day remains unclear, but some credit either Peter McGuire, co-founder of the American Federation of Labor, or Matthew Maguire, a secretary of the Central Labor Union, for proposing the holiday. Although Labor Day is meant as a celebration of the labor movement and its achievements, it has come to be celebrated as the last, long summer weekend before Autumn.
